

Summer Reading Program

Our Summer Reading Program is for Teaneck teens and kids age 3 and up.

-To participate register online at TeaneckLibrary.beanstack.org

-Caregivers should create an account for themselves first and register their children under their account. If you participated in 2019 your account may still be active.

-Check out and read books, magazines and audiobooks at your level. Visit teanecklibrary.org to find out how to borrow ebooks and eaudiobooks

-Visit teanecklibrary.beanstack.org to log your reading time and when you participate in a library program.

-As you move through the levels you can enter raffles to win prizes!

-Voracious Readers who read 80 hours or more can enter to win a Kindle!

Last day to record books is 8/24

Teen Volunteer Opportunities

Are you a Teaneck Teen looking to volunteer while you socially distance this summer? Teaneck Library has several volunteer options for you!

Book Reviewer. Read one of our young adult books and we will post your reviews on our Goodreads account!

Guest Blogger. Help us build content for the Library's Teen Instagram account @teaneckteens. Submit content about what you're reading, listening to, watching, current Teaneck trends, library programs, and more.

Book Buddy. Every Wednesday and Friday from 11 am to 12 pm, read to a Teaneck kid via Zoom.

Attend certain virtual programs to receive service credit as part of our Summer Reading Program!

Visit Teaneck Library.org/teenvolunteer to get started. Volunteering will begin June 22.
