WRITING CRITERIA:

Your role as a member of this committee is vital for current and future conversations between the school administration, district leaders, and your peers. There are 5 openings on the committee, and if selected, your voice will be the beacon that promotes student expression, student rights, and all student related elements surrounding fair and equitable discipline treatment in school.

In preparation for your interview, it is wise to begin drafting your thoughts in a typed, double-spaced, concise and succinct 5 paragraph essay expressing why you believe you should be apart of this Committee using the prompts below.

Please answer the following prompts:

1: How do I see myself being actively involved in getting my peers to voice their concerns about the student codes of conduct and discipline?

2: What innovative and creative ideas can you bring to the committee that qualifies you to become a member of this team?

3: Where in the student codes of conduct do you see is the most important space that requires your voice?

Your application must be submitted on or before October 11, 2019 at 3:00pm. Late applications will not be accepted.

Interviews for those students selected will begin October 21-24, 2019.

Postings/Announcements of the new 5 committee members will be made Monday, October 28, 2019.
