

This month is Black History Month. This is a month to remember and honor the words and attitudes of famous African American leaders.

Please listen to these words from Dr. Martin Luther King:

“People fail to get along because they fear each other, they fear each other because they don’t know each other, and they don’t know each other because they have not communicated with each other”.

So, today at Hawthorne School, please take the time to get to know one another. Say “hello” to someone you would not normally talk to. Listen to your classmates even if they have a different opinion than yours. Open your hearts and your mind to respect one another even if you have differences.

With something to think about , this is Gabe, Angie, Quavier, Mya and Khamani...

Make it a great day or not, the CHOICE IS YOURS!!!!!!
